2. Citations and explanations:

Documents cited in the International Search Report:

D1: US 6563685 B2 D2: WO 0124340 A1

The cited documents represent the general state of the art. The invention defined in claims 1-12 is not disclosed by any of these documents.

The cited prior art does not give any indication that would lead a person skilled in the art to the claimed device or method for thermal overload protection of an electrical device. Therefore, the claimed invention is not obvious to a person skilled in the art.

Accordingly, the invention defined in claims 1-12 is novel and is considered to involve an inventive step. The invention is industrially applicable.
